INDIGO AND OTHER SHORT STORIES is a compilation of unsettling stories that deal with the uncontrolled desires of three unique characters. These desires lead them down paths they cannot return from as the same person.

Indigo is about Hartwig, a strange small man who lets his desire for a beautiful butterfly turn his world upside-down.

The second story, Just One More, is about Little Billy. He loves snacks and tends to find them in the strangest of places. The snack he has in mind to eat today will be the most dangerous one he has ever eaten. His life won't ever be the same again.

The final story Standish Loses Everything, is a tale of a young man on a journey of discovery. He has lost a treasured possession and sets off in search of it. Can he find it without losing himself?

K.R. is a creative writer who has a passion for strange and unusual stories that go untold. She hopes to bring new life to these stories and share them with the world. Her favorite genres to write and read are historical fiction, fantasy, and of course, not to be left out fairytales. She has recently found a new passion for writing for transmedia projects and interactive fiction. K.R. recently received a Bachelors of Fine Arts in Creative Writing for Entertainment from Full Sail University. She is a proud member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars. While she is not writing, she can be found in the woods enjoying nature or curled up with a good book.
